A FANTASY STORY, WRITTEN BY LEON BUTTERFIELD 5ÈME 2

First Chapter

The story begins with the main character Cold Edwin entering the abyssal Labyrinth where he hopes finding something that he can sell for money. Edwin is in urgent need of it to finally buy something better than his old bow and shield. Right when he thinks he's found something blue shining he hears a roaring back the way he has come but there shouldn't be anything left. Edwin needs to get out. Suddenly he sees a monster bigger than anything he has ever seen at least in the lower levels, now he can see what it is exactly : "it is definitely nothing good", he says to himself.

He needs to run!

The Minotaur is standing right before him. He takes a good look at it then he runs as fast as he can to the Rope with which he has come in. "This is a terrible state to be in" he says in fear to himself right before reaching the ladder which is some centimetres above the ground. He jumps onto it hoping it will not break. The air around him gets in almost unbearable and he hears the scratching of an axe behind him. He knows this will be his end but if he dies he will take the Minotaur with him to his grave. He turns around, takes his dagger from out of his jacket and leaps onto the terrifying beast. At the same time the Minotaur aims at the head of the protagonist and then he strikes Edwin who cries in pain as the axe strikes his shoulder just some inches away from his neck, the air around him gets thick and he can barely breathe then he faints. When Edwin awakes he looks around him, he was sure he was dead but he tries to stand up but falls immediately. His shoulder feels like someone had repeatedly stabbed him with a dagger. He lies down, in relief that he's still alive, but while thinking about that, he starts to look around his new but familiar place. The smell is also familiar then he realizes he's in the Adventure guild's infirmary room. In Edwin's head a thought slowly forms, how? How did he end up here? Why didn't he die? All these questions go through his head like an enormous storm. And the biggest of them : who took him here? His thoughts eventually come to rest and he falls back into a deep sleep. Is he awake? "Shhhhhh you will wake him up if you shout so loud!" That is what wakes him up. Edwin asks, confused, who took him to this place and he also recognises all the people : there is his former team-mate and brother, his guild master and the doctor of the guild. The guild master starts speaking: "We are happy to see you awake, we all rushed to the infirmary, do you want to meet the one who saved you?" "Of course!" Edwin said with a little smile on his face. The guild master speaks with respect in his eyes, then he comes, the guild master says: "meet Euard". Euard is a good-looking guy probably around 15 or 16, so the same age as himself. Euard has brown hair and he was wearing jeans, a light T-shirt with a green dragon on it and some sneakers. He has an iron sword on his left hand and a shield strapped to his back. As he steps into the room the air feels lighter. The guild master explains that he is an elf magician and Euard explains that he is a water and air mage. Edwin looks at him and nods his head in an expression of gratitude. Thereupon, he shows a slight smile on his face. "Maybe you want to come with me?" Edwin thinks about it for some seconds, "hmm yeah why not."
